Naomi Rumpff Speaker 2018

Naomi grew up in rural Whatcom County on a farm with no electricity or running water. Her father was a Presbyterian pastor, and he had a great influence in shaping her faith. Her mother, besides being the quintessential pastor's wife, went back to college while most of her own kids were still in school to become an elementary school teacher, another important model to Naomi.

Because she grew up as a PK (preacher's kid), Naomi assumed that she sort of inherited her Christianity. It was not until she was 19 that she made her own decision to accept the truth of Jesus as her Lord. In the years since, she has come to appreciate study in the Word to discover its truth, as the Holy Spirit has led. This last year, she has enjoyed getting 'stuck' in the book of Ephesians, and is excited to share some of what she has discerned, thus the theme for this year's retreat;

God's Eternal Purpose, Bringing Things Together Under Christ."

Naomi is married to her sweetheart, Rick, and lives in Concrete, where they have made their home for over 40 years. They built their own house together, raising two beautiful daughters in the process.

Much to her surprise, Naomi ended up with a career in the Postal Service, which culminated with her being the Concrete postmaster for over 20 years. In the meantime, she and her husband worked together to create and operate two separate businesses. She has also been active in the Mount Baker Presbyterian Church, serving as a teacher, an elder, treasurer, and some-time speaker.

Naomi enjoys sewing, reading, camping and fishing, growing a garden and preserving, and is overly addicted to playing games on her Kindle. She also delights in spending time spoiling her grandchildren!

We look forward to Naomi's sharing with us.
